

Biographies of National Speakers on Identity Theft

Chantele Mack

Manager for Government Relations for the Consumer Data Industry Association, headquartered in Washington, D.C. CDIA, is the international trade association representing more than 500 consumer information companies that provide fraud prevention and risk management products, credit and mortgage reports, tenant and employment screening services, check fraud and verification services, and collection services to hundreds of thousands of customers across the United States and the globe.

Ms. Mack previously worked with the Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC), a trade association representing commercial building contractors, subcontractors, material suppliers and related firms, for five years.

She has a bachelor of arts in International Relations and French from Wheeling Jesuit University in Wheeling, West Virginia.

Sarah Reznik

Consumer Protection Project Director and Chief Counsel at the National Association of Attorneys General.

She received a B.A. from Northwestern University and a J.D., with honors, from the National Law Center of The George Washington University. She has served as a Lecturer in Law at the National Law Center and, thereafter, as a clerk for Judge Julia Cooper Mack of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals. She was then a prosecutor in the District of Columbia. Prior to joining NAAG she served as an attorney with the Federal Trade Commission's Division of Marketing Practices where she conducted and supervised the litigation of deceptive marketing cases before federal district courts. Ms. Reznik received the NAAG staff award, presented in recognition of outstanding contributions to Attorneys General and NAAG, in 2002.

Financial Speaker Canceled. Alternate TBD