Scope of Practice

"Chiropractic" defined in 37-12-101, MCA, as "the system of specific adjustment or manipulation of the articulations and tissues of the body, particularly of the spinal column, for the correction of nerve interference and include the use of recognized diagnostic and treatment methods as taught in chiropractic colleges but does not include surgery or the prescription or use of drugs". Further, in 37-12-104, MCA, the prohibition on prescriptions and administration of drugs is clarified to allow "use of antiseptics for purposes of sanitation and hygiene and to prevent infection and contagion". The scope of practice further delineated in 37-12-104, MCA, includes permission to "diagnose, palpate, and treat the human body by the application of manipulative, manual, mechanical, and dietetic methods, including chiropractic physiotherapy, the use of supportive appliances, analytical instruments, and diagnostic x-ray in accordance with guidelines promulgated or approved by state or federal health regulatory agencies".

2011 Legislation Impacting Board or Profession

- HB 94, sponsored by Rep. Arntzen at the request of the Department of Labor and Industry, generally revises reciprocity and other board functions. (Became law)

Laws that specifically mention chiropractors

- Definition of health care provider in 25-9-411, MCA, regarding malpractice, with specific mention in 27-2-205, MCA, regarding actions for malpractice.
- Montana Chiropractic Legal Panel, Title 27, chapter 12.
- Insurance Code, Title 33, regarding health care providers, medical professionals, and health services covering chiropractors. Freedom of choice of practitioner in 33-22-111 includes chiropractors and 33-22-125 specifies how to handle utilization review of chiropractors.
- Licensing statutes in Title 37, chapter 12, with cross-references elsewhere in Title 37.
- Title 39, chapters 51 and 71, included in definitions of health care providers or treating physician.
- Title 41, chapter 3, as a professional required to report child abuse.
- Title 49, chapter 4, a person allowed to issue a handicapped parking permit.
- Title 52, chapter 3, a professional required to report elder abuse.
- Title 53, chapter 6, health care services allowed under Medicaid.
- Title 71, chapter 3, a health care professional allowed to have lien rights.
- Title 87, chapter 2, a person who may certify hunters eligible to hunt from a vehicle.

Summary of Responses from Survey as made through August 4, 2011:

of Responses from Board of Chiropractor licensees - 3

- Appreciation for the board's ability to monitor the profession and keep the quality of the profession high. One says it regulates those with unethical business practices.
- Concerns about the scope of practice being too narrow. One person would like the addition of acupuncture and injection of homeopathic products.
- One person would like better choice of continuing education courses.
