Dear Homeowner,

Thank you for your interest in providing housing during the 2013 legislative session. The session is scheduled January 7 through April 27, 2013. However, these dates are subject to change.

Attached is a form for you to fill out. If you have any additional information on your property, feel free to attach another sheet. Your information will be entered into a database that will be available to the legislators.

There are two options for filling out the housing form:

- ◆ You may print and the attached form, fill it out and mail it back to me.
- ◆ You are welcome to fill out the form in person in my office.

The Legislative Services Division is acting in the limited role of facilitator in this process. All transactions are between the legislator and you.

Feel free to contact us with any questions you may have.
